

The airwaves are meant to serve the public. I am opposed to any change in rules that would allow further monopolization of the media. Democracy requires the broadest spectrum of information and opinion if it is to survive. Take no action on June 2.